

Obituary

Died: Wednesday, June 2, 2010

Collis Herman "Sam" Goad, 85, of Wallback, entered into rest on June 2, 2010, at Braxton County Memorial Hospital.

Born October 11, 1924, in Willis, VA, Sam was the son of the late Herman and Lauretta (Wade) Goad. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife of 30 years, Corda Coulter Gray Goad, in 2002.

Sam was a 1942 graduate of Floyd County High School in VA. He later received an honorable discharge from the service. Sam was employed at Wilson Funeral Home In Clay, WV, until his retirement in 1989.

Sam is survived by a brother and sister-in-law, Hugh Wade and Winnie Goad, of Willis, VA. In addition, he is survived by a step-granddaughter and dear friend, Dr. Ellyn McLaughlin, of Annapolis, MD. Special thanks are extended to the Laurel Nursing Home Staff of Ivydale, WV, as well as Frank and Connie Kerr of Clay, WV, for the kindness and care shown to Sam over many years.

Graveside service will be 12:00 noon, Tuesday, June 8, 2010, at Pleasant Hill Cemetery in Floyd, VA. Online condolences may be sent at www.carlwilsonfuneralhome.com
